Oireachtas Rince na hÉireann is the oldest major Irish dance competition, having run almost continuously since the 1920s. Blending culture and tradition with cutting edge choreography and athletic prowess, this event attracts 2,000 of the greatest Irish dancers from around the world (accompanied by their teachers and families) to compete for one of Irish dancing's most prestigious titles.

The All-Ireland Championships is an International Qualifying event, offering dancers from every country the opportunity to qualify for the 2025 World Championships, to be held in Baile Átha Cliath, Eire (Dublin, Ireland).

The Organization

An Coimisiún le Rincí Gaelacha (CLRG) is the central organisation dedicated to the worldwide development of Irish dancing. Based in Dublin, An Coimisiún has been in existence for nearly 100 years, and has approximately 2,100 teachers spread over 33 countries around the world.
